

YAHUSHUA the MESSIAH and the Birth of the Pagan Christ

Hello Brothers and Sisters, Friends and enemies I would like to begin this broadcast with the statement (there is nothing new under the sun...) because the fact remains that since the time of YAHUSHUA the Messiah there has always been the spirit of discord. This spirit of discord causes confusion, conflict and chaos and it will constantly test the faith and patience of YAH's chosen few. In this broadcast I will discuss the root of this discord and I hope to give you a better over-standing about where this chaos comes from. Today's message is entitled (Yahushua the Messiah and the birth of the pagan Christ).

I first want to begin with a little history 4th century 325 AD, exactly 1696 years ago. At this time there was a political event called the first Council of Nicaea. For those of you whom are not familiar with this Council here is a quick overview.

Constantine I was the Roman emperor from 306 to 337 he stands out among others because he was the first Roman emperor to convert to Christianity. Constantine I was born Flavius Valerius Constantinus he is know in Roman Catholic history as Saint Constantine the Great.

And it reads form his biography:

“Constantine the Great summoned the bishops of the Christian Church to Nicaea to address divisions in the Church. The First Council of Nicaea was a council of Christian bishops convened in Nicaea in Bithynia (which is present day Turkey) by the Roman Emperor Constantine I in A.D. 325. The Council was the first effort to attain consensus in the church through an assembly representing all of Christendom. Its main accomplishments were settlement of the Christological issue of the relationship of “Jesus to God the Father”;

(Quick Note: Before I continue the debate concerning the concept of Jesus to God the Father was already spawned in ignorance. We know this because long before this council took place the proper name was YAHUSHUA spoken by an Hebraic Afro-Asiatic dialect not an Indo-European Roman dialect. We will discuss this at a latter time.)

Now the council did not create the doctrine of the deity of Christ but it did settle to some degree the debate within the Early Christian communities regarding the divinity of Christ. This idea of the divinity of Christ along with the idea of Christ as a messenger from the one God ("The Father") had long existed in various parts of the Roman empire. The divinity of Christ had also been widely endorsed by the Christian community in the otherwise pagan city of Rome.[5] The council affirmed and defined what it believed to be the teachings of the Apostles regarding who Christ is: that Christ is the one true God in deity with the Father.”

Now this last part is important, because at this time the Apostles were still very influential and Christians were being persecuted like crazy. You had the Hebrew Christian and Jewish Revolts going on, Emperor Nero destroys the 2nd Temple, the lineage of King Herod and the Boethius high priest denying the divinity of the Messiah. You had the Colosseum being built to kill anyone that claims to be a Christian it was a time of great chaos, so when they say “The council affirmed and defined what it believed to be the teachings of the Apostles about who Christ is” they took this information serious because they were being killed for speaking their truth. Those in the council knew the WORD was straight from YAHUSHUA pass down to the mouths of the Apostles!

Okay now here is another point to think about:

The Christians at this time were extremely different from the so-called Christians today. They were named Christians by the Greeks which comes from the word Khristós (Which means the Anointed One or ointment, to apply oil to the skin) The Greeks used this name without understanding. They used it as ridicule. But if you apply it to the Hebrew meaning it means the Messiah. The only place in the Bible it is used is in the book of Daniel Chapter 9 verses 25 and 26 which talks about the Seventy Weeks prophecy of 490 years. The book of Daniel speaks about the coming of the Messiah and future events after the Yahushua is murdered.

And it reads:

Daniel Chapter 9, Verse 24:

“Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.”

The Abomination of Desolation

Mark Chapter 13 Verses 14 – 23

“But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judaea flee to the mountains: And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house: And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment. But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!”

“And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter. For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which AHYAH created unto this time, neither shall be. And except that YAHUWAH had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days. And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not: For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.”

If you can see than you will know that the Book of Daniel was speaking about the coming of the Messiah and the book of Mark was clarifying The Abomination of Desolation which is the anti Messiah. When Daniel speaks about the Anointed he is speaking about the followers of the righteous teacher that will correct the evil on our planet.

Now before I get to far off track the reason The Greeks did not know anything about the Messiah they did not read the book of Daniel because at this time they where pagans. The Hebrews of the Seed of Yacob used the word anointed in reference to being a follower of the Anointed one Baptiste in water and made clean. They also use this word anointed to edify a King or Prophet that was anointed by the spirit of the Most High. So the earlier Christians before 325 AD where true to this word anointed.

Now when you hear me complain about Christianity I am not talking about the true root I am talking about the corruption. The true group that I am speaking about where called Hebrew Christian. “ They were Early Christians who maintained Hebrew religious practices, from the period of the inception of Christianity until approximately the fifth century. They were associated with the Hebrew-Christian Gospels.” - Wikipedia
When you study the early Hebrew Christian you discovery that they were forced to migrate to the West coast and the southern parts of Africa. Because the 5th century is when Roman Christianity became the dominant religion. Therefore the Hebrews had to leave this area of Judea because the new Christians did not tolerate any other views except that of Rome. So where is the safest place to go? Would you go North where it's cold and a part of the Roman Empire Or would you go south where it's warm and out of the reach of the Roman Empire? Later you discover that the Hebrew Christians escaped this threat, but then were usurped and destroyed during the rise of another threat called Islam during the 7th Century. The threat of conversion, enslavement or death. And if that did not destroy them 700 years later they had to deal with the decree that set off the Slave Trade of 1452. Today the last remaining ancient Hebrew-Christian are found in Ethiopia.

Okay now back to the over-standing of Hebrew Christians:

Alister McGrath a former Professor of Historical Theology at the University of Oxford, claims that the “ 1st century Hebrew Christians were totally faithful religious Jews. He states that the only differed from other contemporary Jews in their acceptance of YAHUSHUA as the Messiah. However as Christianity grew throughout the Gentile world, Christians were cut off from their Hebrew roots.”

Okay now pay attention to this last part. This is where it gets interesting:

“Hebrew Christianity fell into decline, probably due to the early persecution of the sect by the Jerusalem Temple authorities, followed by the Jewish-Roman wars (66-135) and then the growing anti-Judaism perhaps best personified by Marcion in the 2nd century, and with more than a little help from the Roman Emperor Constantine in the 4th century, it faded quietly into the background. It was dominated by the gentile based Christianity which became the official religion of the Roman Empire and which took control of sites in the Holy Land such as the Church of the Holy Sepulcher and the Cenacle.”

Okay now I wanted I go over that before we get into the first Council of Nicaea because I want to lay the foundation for understanding on why this Council happened and who was the instigator of it. To help with this we will highlight the seven major players whom I will explain in greater detail. The first is of course the Roman Emperor Constantine. Than we have a Priest by the named Arius, we have a Bishop named Eusebius and finally another Bishop named Melitius of Lycopolis. Okay now the next group of players are as followed. The first is a Roman Church Father named Titus Flavius Clemens also known as Clement of Alexandria. Than we have the Roman Church Father named Lucian of Antioch and last we have Origen Adamantius and Priest Arius of Alexandria.

These seven men changed the foundation of Christianity forever from an Hebraic African Spirituality rooted in the history and culture of the Hebrew people into a European pagan influence now known as the Holy Roman Empire.

QUICK BREAK – 30 Min Mark – KumBaya

Okay if you ever wondered why the Church is filled with Babel and contradictions after this broadcast you will not be confused. To begin the sections of this broadcast I will start with Origen.

Who is Origen?

“Origen (Greek Origen Adamantius 185 254 AD) was an early Christian scholar and theologian, and one of the most distinguished writers of the early Christian Church despite not being considered a Church father by most Christians who recognize this distinction.[2] According to tradition, he is held to have been an Egyptian[3] who taught in Alexandria, reviving the Catechetical School of Alexandria where Clement of Alexandria had taught.[4] The patriarch of Alexandria at first supported Origen but later expelled him for being ordained without the patriarch's permission.[5] He relocated to Caesarea Maritima and died there after being tortured during a persecution.[6]

Using his knowledge of Hebrew, he produced the Hexapla and a corrected Septuagint. [7] He wrote commentaries on most of the books of the Bible.[7] In De principiis (On First Principles), he articulated one of the first philosophical expositions of Christian doctrine.[7] He interpreted scripture allegorically and developed certain doctrines with similarities to Neo-Pythagorean and Neo-Platonist thought.[7] Like Plotinus, he wrote that the soul passes through successive stages of incarnation before eventually reaching God.[7] He imagined even demons being reunited with God. For Origen, God was the First Principle, and Christ, the Logos, was subordinate to him.[7] His views of a hierarchical structure in the Trinity, the temporality of matter, "the fabulous preexistence of souls," and "the monstrous restoration which follows from it" were declared anathema in the 6th century.[8]” – Wikipedia - 2011

So what is Anathema(Anaathema)?

This word anathema comes from the Greek root simple it means something dedicated, especially dedicated to evil, from "I set upon, offer as a votive gift") originally meant something lifted up as an offering to the gods; it later evolved to mean:

To be formally set apart; Banished, exiled, excommunicated; Denounced, sometimes accursed; or a literary term.

Some 300 years after the death of Origen Adamantius the church of Rome banished his teachings because they found that they were dedicated to evil. Now to be clear I have to read what Origen wrote if we can still find it. So what were his teachings? First what is the Etymology of the name Origen?

His Greek name Origen, means "child of Horus" (from "Horus", and "born").[9] His nickname or cognomen Adamantius derives from Greek which means "unconquerable" or "unbreakable". Most of the understanding of Lucifer or Satan derives from the commentaries of Origen. Later in life he went insane, he castrated his self because he was obsessed with the bible. He was more of an occultist than a Christian theologian in my opinion. However his influence is KEY.

Next we have Titus Flavius Clemens AKA Clement of Alexandria

Titus Flavius Clemens (c.150 - c. 215), known as Clement of Alexandria (to distinguish him from Clement of Rome), was a Christian theologian and the head of the noted Catechetical School of Alexandria. Clement is best remembered as the teacher of Origen. "He united Greek philosophical traditions with Christian doctrine and valued Gnostic that with communion for all people could be held by common Christians specially chosen by God. " (NOW LETS READ THAT AGAIN)

Though he constantly opposes the concept of gnosis as defined by the Gnostics, he used the term "gnostic" for Christians who had attained the deeper teaching of the Logos.[1] He developed a Christian Platonism.[2] He presented the goal of Christian life as deification, identified both as Platonism's assimilation into God and the biblical imitation of God.[1] Like Origen, he arose from Alexandria's Catechetical School and was well versed in pagan literature. [2] Origen succeeded Clement as head of the school. (SO ARE YOU STARTING TO SEE THE PICTURE? If not stay with me.)

Next we have Lucian of Antioch

Lucian is also commonly credited with a critical recension (which means Lucian changed the Bible) of the text of the Septuagint and the Greek New Testament, which was later used by Chrysostom and the later Greek fathers, and which lies at the basis of the textus receptus.[7] Jerome mentions that copies were known in his day as "exemplaria Luciana" but in other places he speaks rather disparagingly of the texts of Lucian.[8] In the absence of definite information it is impossible to decide the merits of his critical labors.[9] He believed in the literal sense of the biblical text and thus laid stress on the need of textual accuracy. He undertook to revise the Septuagint based on the original Hebrew. [Lucian {c. 240-312} "founded a college at Antioch which strove to counteract the dangerous ecclesiastical alliance between Rome and Alexandria [which] strove to exalt tradition.[and] teach Christianity. mixed with pagan philosophy" Historians often wrongly attribute the Arian heresy to Lucian, since Arius was his former student. However, Arius and his heretical teaching that Jesus Christ was a created being, is stoutly refuted by his former Master, Lucian of Antioch, whose creed sets forth all three members of the Godhead on exact Scriptural grounds. He is sometimes called a "Judaizer," because he taught the Ten Commandments, including the seventh day Sabbath, which was generally kept outside of Rome and Alexandria at the time. Whether "friends or opponents, [they all] agree that Lucian was the editor who passed on to the world the Received Text -- the New Testament text which was adopted at the birth of all the great churches of the Reformation. Lucian died a martyr's death in about 312 AD. Now it's hard to pin this guy. It's difficult to know what his Theology was but he was one of the Key players in the Council of Nicaea.

Okay now please stay with me this is very important to lay this out because these men are considered the Church Fathers the root of the Catholic Church. I want to lay this out before I speak about the Messiah because these fools started the Doctrine that AHYAH and Yahushua are not one and because this we now have the doctrine based on the so-called Church Fathers.

Now Eusebius of Caesarea:

Eusebius of Caesarea, c. 263–339 AD, called Eusebius Pamphili, became the Bishop of Caesarea in Palestine about the year 314. Eusebius, historian, exegete and polemicist is one of the more renowned Church Fathers. He (with Pamphilus) was a scholar of the Biblical canon. He wrote Demonstrations of the Gospel, Preparations for the Gospel, and On Discrepancies between the Gospels, studies of the Biblical text. As "Father of Church History" he produced the Ecclesiastical History, On the Life of Pamphilus, the Chronicle and On the Martyrs.

From a dogmatic point of view, Eusebius stands entirely upon the shoulders of Origen. Like Origen, he started from the fundamental thought of the absolute sovereignty (monarchia) of God. God is the cause of all beings. But he is not merely a cause; in him everything good is included, from him all life originates, and he is the source of all virtue. God sent Christ into the world that it may partake of the blessings included in the essence of God. Christ is God and is a ray of the eternal light; but the figure of the ray is so limited by Eusebius that he expressly distinguishes the Son as distinct from Father as a ray is also distinct from its source the sun.

Okay now final we get to A Bishop named Melitius of Lycopolis:

“Melitius or Meletius[1] (died 327) was bishop of Lycopolis in Egypt. He is known mainly as the founder and namesake of the Melitians (c. 305), one of several schismatic sects in early church history which were concerned about the ease with which lapsed Christians reentered the Church.[The supporters that Melitius drew around him included twenty-eight other bishops, at least some of whom he personally ordained, and the objections against him included that he ordained people in regions where he lacked authority.[5] His group went by the name Church of the Martyrs, inherently objecting to the reacceptance by other bishops of people who chose to avoid the risk of martyrdom. Melitius' influence extended into Palestine.

The Council of Nicaea in 325 attempted to create peace with the Melitians.[8][3] Melitius was allowed to remain bishop of Lycopolis,[3] but was no longer to ordain bishops outside his region. The bishops he had already ordained were accepted under certain restrictions, and had to be reordained.[9] Melitius's death followed in 327, and he was succeeded as leader by his handpicked successor, John Arkhaph.[10] The effort to bring unity proved unsuccessful. His followers sided with the Arians in their controversy and existed as a separate sect until the fifth century.

The Council of Nicaea in 325 attempted to create peace with the Melitians.[6] Melitius was allowed to remain bishop of Lycopolis, but was no longer to ordain bishops outside his region. The bishops he had already ordained were accepted under certain restrictions, and had to be reordained.[7] Melitius' death followed soon after the council met, and the effort to bring unity proved unsuccessful. His followers sided with the Arians in their controversy and existed as a separate sect till the 5th century. ” - Wikipedia 2021

The Arian controversy

“Arius, Koinē Greek: 256–336) was a Cyrenaic presbyter and ascetic,[1] and priest in Baucalis in Alexandria, Egypt.[2] His teachings about the nature of the Godhead in Christianity, which emphasized God the Father's uniqueness and Christ's subordination under the Father,[3] and his opposition to what would become the dominant Christology, Homoousian Christology, made him a primary topic of the First Council of Nicaea, which was convened by Emperor Constantine the Great in 325.” -Wikipedia 2021

Arius is notable primarily because of his role in the Arian controversy, a great fourth-century theological conflict that rocked the Christian world and led to the calling of the first ecumenical council of the Church. This controversy centered upon the nature of the Son of God, and his precise relationship to God the Father.

Origen and Arius:

“Like many third-century Christian scholars, Arius was influenced by the writings of Origen, widely regarded as the first great theologian of Christianity.[12] However, while he drew support from Origen's theories on the Logos, the two did not agree on everything. Arius clearly argued that there was a time when the Son did not exist, and that the Logos had a beginning. By way of contrast, Origen taught that the relation of the Son to the Father had no beginning.[13] Arius objected to Origen's doctrine, complaining about it in his letter to the Nicomedian Eusebius, who had also studied under Lucian. Nevertheless, despite disagreeing with Origen on this point, Arius found solace in his writings, which used expressions that favored Arius's contention that the Logos was of a different substance than the Father, and owed his existence to his Father's will. However, because Origen's theological speculations were often proffered to stimulate further inquiry rather than to put an end to any given dispute, both Arius and his opponents were able to invoke the authority of this revered (at the time) theologian during their debate.[14]" - Wikipedia 2011

Okay I wanted to lay the ground so I can finally get to the main point of this discussion now if Origen the Child of Horus is the Root then this article will explain the Core. This is from an article I found called Christianity and Platonism:

Christianity and Platonism:

"Many Western churchmen, including Augustine of Hippo, have been influenced by Platonism. Platonism influenced Christianity through Clement of Alexandria and Origen,[3] and the Cappadocian Fathers.[5] St. Augustine was heavily influenced by Platonism as well, which he encountered through the Latin translations of Marius Victorinus of the works of Porphyry and/or Plotinus.[3] Platonism was considered authoritative in the Middle Ages, and many Platonic notions are now permanent elements of Catholic/Protestant Christianity. [3] Platonism also influenced both Eastern and Western mysticism. [3] [6] Meanwhile, Platonism influenced various philosophers.[3] While Aristotle became more influential than Plato in the 13th century, St. Thomas Aquinas's philosophy was still in certain respects fundamentally Platonic.[3] With the Renaissance, scholars became more interested in Plato himself.[3] In 16th, 17th century, and 19th century England, Plato's ideas influenced many religious thinkers. [3] Orthodox Protestantism on continental Europe, however, distrusts natural reason and has often been critical of Platonism.[3]" - Wikipedia 2011

Okay now I want you to think of the Hermetic Qabalah the Western esoteric tradition of mysticism and the occult. This religion of Hermetism comes from Neoplatonism. The same religion that influenced John Dees, Sir Francis Bacon, Helena Blavatsky and the creation of the Theosophical Society. I did a broadcast on this years ago about the founding fathers and the Rosicrucian Order. Well the core belief is based on Platonism all of it leads back to this. Now keep that in mind as I speak on the first Council of Nicaea.

The first Council of Nicaea:

In 325 AD Arius the Priest started a major conflict among the Christians. At this time you had many different sects you had the Hebrew-Christian whom I spoken about earlier they were the original Christians the true core Yahushua being the head of course. You had the late Apostles that made of different groups like the Cerinthians, Ebionites, Elcesaites, Essenes, Notzrim, Nazarenes these were the core the truth. They received the WORD straight from the Messiah.

Then you had the other Christians the ones that converted into the faith, but still held onto their pagan beliefs as well.

And last you had the 100% pagans that had their own issues. This went on for over 200 years then we had the arrival of Priest Arius of Alexandria he divided the Christian group even further. Now since most of them were not as hardcore as the Hebraic Christians the other groups fell for this new philosophy called Arianism. Because most of these new Christians did not have the root of the Messiah, conflict started rising all over the Roman Empire and it got so bad that Emperor Constantine had to get involved.

Now what made Emperor Constantine so special was because he was actually kind to the Christians. This kindness was because of a dream and a vision he had. He dreamed that a spirit came to him and gave him a special symbol and if he placed it on the shields of his soldiers and on his self he would be protected and win a particular great battle called the Battle of the Milvian Bridge of 312 AD. History states that Constantine followed the instructions of the dream and won. The symbol is now used as the Christian cross. The description of the symbol is like the letter P with the letter X on top of it. They call it the "Chi Rho" Many believe this was a vision of AHYAH, but when you have the whole nation using a graven image to represent Yahushua you have to question where did the vision really come from. However out of this he started to notice the Christian God. Before the vision Emperor Constantine was a Sol Invictus worshiper he followed the Sun God until after the Battle of Milvian Bridge.

The Conflict:

So now we fast forward to 323 AD 13 years later we have Priest Arius of Alexandria sowing discord and religious conflicts start to break out all over Rome. The cult of Arianism has very powerful followers. Meanwhile Constantine's sister is married to Emperor Licinius whom is friends with Eusebius whom is a Church Father as well as a pupil Origen the son of Horus. At this time Arius has all this power behind him and he starts to write letters to all these Bishops and leaders in the Christian faith saying that Yahushua is not the Son of The Most High and that he is not really divine. Basically he had the spirit of the anti-Christ the same spirit we see today.

Okay so after a few months or so people start to lose it. The Roman Empire has two rulers at this time one is Emperor Licinius and the other is Emperor Constantine and because of this conflict war breaks out between the two Emperors. Constantine defeats Licinius has him put to death and becomes the sole Emperor of Rome. Now also at this time Arius is gaining more power and now is trying to pass a decree that Yahushua is not the Messiah or the embodiment of the Most High. To make a long story short Constantine gets involved he forms the first Council of Nicaea and invites all of the High Priests and bishops thru the whole of the Roman Empire. Okay we are finally here. All that to take us to this point the reason why the Council was called. If Arius were able to make this decree it would be illegal to say Yahushua was the Messiah. And most likely all Christian that believed this would be put to death until they where purged out and the doctrine of Arianism would be the standard for all Christians. Now you have Meletian the Bishop that Ordained Arius. You have a sect called the Melitians Lucian Bishop of the defeated half of Rome. And finally Eusebius a Church father of the paganised christian church. Then you have all of the pagan priest, the new pagan christian and of course the Hebrew Christian the debates start and on the agenda you have the following:

The agenda of the synod included:

- The Arian question regarding the relationship between God the Father and Jesus; i.e. are the Father and Son one in divine purpose only or also one in being.
- The date of celebration of the Paschal/Easter observation
- The Meletian schism
- The validity of baptism by heretics

Now since the Arian theology was the dominant at the time they had to defeat him with scriptures not philosophy or emotions just the word. When you read about this meeting it describes the people that where there, on the Hebrew Christian side they were broken and bruised. They speak about missing eyes, lost limbs some were burnt, missing teeth It was a pitiful yet admirable sight to see. At this time you died for your faith which is why Priest Arius of Alexandria had better have brought his A game if he wanted to go up against these Christians.

Here is what it states:

“Eusebius of Caesarea who has described the great moments of the council was evidently moved, as we too may be, by his recollection of the scene when, the bishops all assembled in the great hall of the palace, some of them lame and blind from the tortures undergone in the persecutions, the Christian master of the whole Roman world entered, robed in scarlet and gold, and before taking his place at the throne, bade them be seated. Constantine came with a minimum of pomp, and in his brief address he did no more than welcome the bishops, exhort them to peaceful conference, and admit that the spectacle of "sedition" within the Church caused him more anxiety than any battle.”

- Wikipedia 2011

So in the end Arius had no chance I think he got like 22 Bishops that voted in support. After Arius was striped of his place for being a demon. Bishop Meletian Lost his ability to Ordain people he died the same year and the Arian movement went underground. Now what's interesting after the Arian movement went underground It probable became an occult order. It's a fact that the Jehovah Witnesses beliefs are based on some of these Arian philosophy they are considered Semi-Arianism. Sir Issac Newton was also a follower of Semi-Arianism so were most of the founding fathers. When the protestant movement happened there was an emergence and this is how Sir Issac Newton, Francis Bacon, John Dees and all the demonic angel worshipers became prominent after the Renaissance. Now keep in mind all of this stems from Plato, Neo-Platonism and Hermetic Quabala.

Thankfully Arius and Lucifer lost that battle however they eventually won the war because after the Church was reformed it became the Universal Church A.K.A the Catholic Church which was merged with all the Pagan holidays into one religious system. Then we seen the creation of the Popes as the ancient Hebrew Christian writings hidden, rewritten or lost eventually the whole church became corrupt as it merged with Rome to become the Holy Roman Empire which gave birth to the Pagan Christ and as they say the rest is History.

Okay now how dose this story relate to YAHUSHUA?

Well the silver lining we should take from this is that even after the best that Lucifer can give, all his powerful bishops, his Roman Emperors and his powerful propaganda all of that and he still could not defeat the truth. The cult of Arius was not able to defeat the Hebrew Christians because they used the words of AHYAH thru the scribes and the prophets. You would see this as a lost if you do not know the rest of the story. However if you know that the truth was hidden and that our story is still being written than you can see that we have the victory. I will explain this after the break in greater detail.

The Birth Of The Messiah:

It has been over 10 years since I first researched and wrote the first edition of Yahushua the Messiah and the Birth of the Pagan Christ. From 2008 to 2011 my life went thru years of new discoveries and constant paradigm shifts all my knowledge of religion was throw on it's head. It took me years to grow to the point I am at this moment. Way back is 2011 I heard many atheist and non Messianic so-called Hebrews speak about how JESUS was a fraud. The talking point at the time was that the line of David was Cursed because of Coniah. They call it "the Curse of Coniah" and I was surprised when I found tons of articles written about this topic. All you had to do was place that term "the Curse of Coniah" in a search engine and blame hits all day long. So I thought to myself why do so many people ask questions that are so easily to verify? Why would you make a YouTube video for the world to see how ignorant you are? In my mind I thought if they took the time to see and had just a little faith they would truly find the words of the Most High. If you seek wisdom and your truly seek everything is revealed. For those of you whom are still confused and unfamiliar with the Curse of Coniah controversy this portion of the broadcast is for you and also for someone that needs this message.

The Curse Of Coniah:

The talking point is that Jesus Christ could not be King of Judah because the line of Judah was corrupt because of the curse of Coniah. Since Joseph was the father of Jesus and Joseph was in Coniah bloodline than this would disqualify Jesus as King of Judah. You can read this in the Book of Jeremiah Chapter 22.

Jeremiah the Prophet Chapter 22 verses 24 – 30:

“ As I live, saith the MOST HIGH, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence; And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die. But to the land where unto they desire to return, thither shall they not return. Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not? O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the MOST HIGH. Thus saith the MOST HIGH, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of DAWID, and ruling any more in Judah. ”

Now if you read the book of the Kings and the book of Chronicles we know the Coniah did have children. And one of them was a man by the name Shealtiel(Salathiel). And yes this curse did fall on Shealtiel and he did not have children and he being the first born was the first in line to be King but he was passed over. The line did not go to the second born either it went to Pedaiah and he had a son named ZOROBABEL.

Interesting note: ZOROBABEL - means the seed of Babylon or Babel which is confusion so his name means the seed of Confusion.

What I learned thru the years of research is the path to understand scriptures is in the true ancient original Hebrew names. Everything we want to know is placed in the names of the chosen of AHYAH. This is how they hid the meaning of the message they used many translation into different languages. The church fathers the first translators knew the meaning of the message was in the names translators like Origen the son of Horus, Clement of Alexandria, Lucian of Antioch and Priest Arius of Alexandria just to name a few. Now here are a list of names that I discovered from the sacred names dictionary as well as multiple Biblical sources.

The first name is Yeconaniah which was changed to Conaniah the original translation was KownanYahuw which means (YAHUWAH will establish) Cause to continue or be prolonged to fix or sustain for an extended period or without interruption.

If you study history you can see that this refers to the REMNANT of Judah.

Yeconaniah's father's name was Jehoiakim the original translation is Yahuwyaqiym which means (Yahuwah will raise). The son of Conaniah was named Shealtiel She'altiy'el which means (I asked EL) now keep in mind his son's name means I have asked EL not I ask AHYAH this distinction is vital to or over-standing of why Conaniah was cursed. The Grandson of Conaniah was named- Zorobabel which means (Begotten in Babylon) and since Babylon comes from confusion and Zerubbabel was born in the land of confusion. Another son of Conaniah was named Pedaiah-(PedaYahuw) which means (YAHUWAH has ransomed).

The definition of Ransomed is as followed:

1:a consideration paid or demanded for the release of someone or something from captivity. 2:b to deliver especially from sin or its penalty.
3: c to free from captivity or punishment by paying a price.

Now the questions is what did YeConaniah do to make the Kingdom of Jerusalem fall into the hands of Babylon? Well lets let the names speak. In Chronicles 1 Chapter 3 verse 17 – 19 you will read that YeConaniah had 8 children.

As it reads:

And the sons of Jeconiah; Assir 1, Salathiel 2 his son, Malchiram 3 also, and Pedaiah 4, and Shenazar 5, Jecamiah 6, Hoshama 7, and Nedabiah 8.

Then is verses 19 it reads:

And the sons of Pedaiah were, Zerubbabel, and Shimei: and the sons of Zerubbabel; Meshullam, and Hananiah, and Shelomith their sister.

Now keep in mind there is no mention of the sons of Salathiel. Why? Because the curse was on this particular child because of what Conaniah did to conceive him. How do we know? Because of the meaning of his name Salathiel –(I Asked EL).

Shealtiel = שאלתיאל

In the Ancient Paleo Hebrew Chart we see the story;

SHIN ~ EL ~ LAM ~ HHET ~ YAD ~ EL ~ LAM

SHIN - Sharp Press Eat Two | EL - Strong Power Leader | LAM - Teach Yoke To Bind | HHET - Outside Divide Half | YAD - Work Throw Worship | EL - Strong Power Leader | LAM - Teach Yoke To Bind

“Etymology of the name Shealtiel

The name Shealtiel consists of two elements, the final one being אל (EL), the prominent Canaanite deity, whose name became applied to the God of Israel, or the common abbreviation of Elohim, the genus God:

The first part of the name is SHE LA:

The verb שאל (sha'al) means to ask. Noun שאלה (she'la) means request or petition, and noun משאלה (mish'ala) means petition or desire. The difficult noun שואל (she'ol) refers primarily to the grave and by extension to death and decomposition.”

– ABARIM Publications 2021

So lets get this straight his name mean to petition EL the root of this word petition or desire is She'ol the place of darkness to which the dead go, so basically Conaniah made a deal with the BAAL whom is Beelzebub. This is why Shealtiel's offspring are not mentioned in the book because he did not have any.

Now the question is this. Did the Curse of Conaniah apply to YAHUSHUA the Messiah? Lets answer it with the names.

YKNYAH = יכנייה

YAD ~ KAPH ~ NUN ~ YAD ~ AH

YAD - Work Throw Worship | KAPH - Bend Open Allow Tame | NUN - Continue Heir Son | YAD - Work Throw Worship | AH - Look Reveal Breath

Meaning YAHUWAH will Establish. Yconiah was the first born son of King Yhoiakim. King Yconiah had eight children and here are the meanings of the names of each child.

Assir - (Captive, Bound One) *Salathiel - (I ask EL) Malchiram - (The King is Exalted), *Pedaiah - (YAHUWAH has Ransomed), Shenazar - (Splendid Leader), Jecamiah - (YAH will Rise), Hoshama - (YAHUWAH has Heard) and Nedabiah - (YAHUWAH gives willingly).

Here is a quick article that explains the discrepancies:

“Shealtiel is a significant but problematic member in the genealogies of the House of David and of the genealogy of Jesus. There is conflicting text in the Hebrew Bible in 1 Chronicles 3:19, which lists Zerubbabel as the son of Shealtiel's brother, Pedaiah (while the Greek Septuagint lists Zerubbabel as the son of Shealtiel). Though both genealogies of Jesus list Zerubbabel as the son of Shealtiel, they differ as to Shealtiel's paternity with Matthew 1:12 agreeing with 1 Chronicles that Jeconiah was Shealtiel's father. Luke also agrees through a linguistic twist: Luke 3:27-28 refers to the father of Sh'al'teiel (שְׁאַלְתֵּיֶל - Shealtiel) as Neri (נְרִי - Nerei); this is a shortened form of the Hebrew name Neriyaḥ (נְרִיָּה - Nereiyah); meaning: "Father of branch"

– Wikipedia 2021

Okay now hold on did you hear that? “Shealtiel is a significant but problematic member in the genealogies of the House of David and of the genealogy of Jesus. There is conflicting text in the Hebrew Bible in 1 Chronicles 3:19, which lists Zerubbabel as the son of Shealtiel's brother, Pedaiah (while the Greek Septuagint lists Zerubbabel as the son of Shealtiel).”

Now keep in mind Zerubbabel means confusion it's almost like this was done on purpose. Now who do you think had their hands in the pot? Does the statement the church father of the Catholic Church ring a bell?

Now when you read the new testament it shows the line from Jeconiah to Shealtiel to Zerubbabel to Adjud to Eliakim and so on to YAHUSHUA, but in reality it is Jeconiah – YAH will Establishes to Pedaiah (YAH has ransomed) to Zerubbabel to Adjud to Eliakim and so on.

PEDAIAH = פְּדִיָּה

PH ~ DAL ~ YAD ~ AH

PH – Blow Scatter Edge | DAL – Move hang Entrance | YAD – Work Throw Worship | AH – Look Reveal Breath

Now just from these names you can put together the story now that we are familiar with the story. YAH will raise this was Jehoiakim the King of Judah the father of YeConaniah whom YAH will Establish. Now we know these names to be true because this line was sustained till the birth of Messiah, but there was a problem. YeConaniah became Conaniah, because he made a bond with Baal thru Shealtiel when he asked EL for this child. Because of this he did evil in the sight of YAHUWAH and he was removed from leadership and his whole family went into captivity. However we see that YAH sustained the children of YeConaniah thru Jecamiah (YAH will Rise) thru Hoshama (YAH has Heard) thru Nedabiah (YAH gives willingly) and thru Pedaiah (YAH has Ransomed).

And you can see that YAH choose Pedaiah to be the seed because he redeemed, he delivered, he rescue the world from the punishment for sin. And that redemption was ZOROBABEL who built the second temple while he was born in Babylon because his Grandfather allowed the seed BABEL the seed of confusion into the house of Yacob.

Now I could end this here, but I really want to bring this home. If these people that question the genealogy of YAHUSHUA based on the Book of Mathew and the Book of Luke read just a little bit further they would not be so confused. The very next chapter in the book of Jeremiah reads as followed:

Jeremiah Chapter 23 Verses 1 – 8:

Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the MOST HIGH. Therefore thus saith the MOST HIGH. YAH of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the MOST HIGH. And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase. And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the MOST HIGH.

Behold, the days come, saith the MOST HIGH., that I will raise unto DAWID a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, The Most High Righteousness who is YAHUSHUA.

Now if the curse was on the line of Dawid then how can there be a righteous branch spoken of in the very next chapter?

Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the MOST HIGH., that they shall no more say, The MOST HIGH liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; But, The MOST HIGH liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.“ - KJV

So here we can see that the curse was lifted by the birth of Zerubbabel via Pedaiah, but we get confusion. And this confusion is used today to discredit the line of Dawid and speak bad about the MESSIAH. It's the same Modus Operandi of Lucifer and the fallen ones change the text cause confusion and division and keep it moving .

Here are a few final points to think about:

The KEY to understanding is in the names. Because the message to Israel is hidden in the names. This is why when you read about a person in bible dictionary they breakdown the meaning of the person name first. You can also get a deeper meaning by understanding how a name is used. For example Egypt. When I found out that Egypt meant bondage the last verses in Deuteronomy 28 had a whole new meaning.

Deuteronomy 28:68 And the MOST HIGH shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way where of I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you. And like I said before you don't need a ship to go to Egypt from Israel.

So knowing the name the TRUE name is the key YAHUSHUA = YAHUWAH is SALVATION.

Here is something else to consider:

Everything that we have been taught in the past has to be revisited. Because the teachers did not come from the Most High. They came of them selves.

Here is something else to consider:

There are many books that are missing in scriptures, we know this because we read about them. So what was taken away from our understanding. And who took it away?

Who decided that we did not need these books? Was it the Kings of Judah or the Kings of Israel. Was it the King of Babylon? The Holy Roman Empire? Who was it? Here is an example of the books that missing:

Book of the Covenant

Exodus 24:7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient.

The Book Of Nathan the Prophet

1 Chronicles 29:29 Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer,

Epistle from Laodicea to the Colossi ans

Colossi ans 4:16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

Nazarene Prophecy Source

Matthew 2:23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene

The Book Of the Acts of Uziah

2 Chronicles 26:22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write.

The Annals of King David

1 Chronicles 27:24 Joab son of Zeruiah began to count the men but did not finish. Wrath came on Israel on account of this numbering, and the number was not entered in the book of the annals of King David.

The books of the Kings of Judah and the books of the Kings of Israel. Now because of the separate kingdoms there are added stories we never heard of. When I say the books have been corrupted I do not mean that the WORDS of THE MOST HIGH YAH is corrupt. What I mean is the hands of the gentiles that have inserted babel into the understanding is corrupt. So once we uproot babel we rediscover or understanding. So Pretending that it does not exist is foolish. This is why I criticize present day Christianity. Because when someone tells them they have been misled or lied to they ignore you or do not listen.

And because they do not listen they do not have the ability to HEAR. And this is KEY! Because they can not hearing the understanding of the WORD. The MOST HIGH YAH is calling his people.

John Chapter 10 26 – 28:

But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

How can his sheep hear his voice if babel is do all of the speaking?

You know when it came to me to do this study I had no clue where it would lead. This last part I wrote out because I got inspired by that statement “How can his sheep hear his voice if babel is do all of the speaking” This was a question I had, so I wrote it out just like it sounds. Now here is the answer to the question I had check this out it is going to blow your mind:

It Started with Romans Chapter 10 Verses 13 - 28:

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of AHYAH. But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me. But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people

Okay now it dose not stop there the verses was telling me to go to ISIAH 52:7 – 15:

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy YAH reigneth! Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when YAHUWAH shall bring again Zion. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for t YAHUWAH hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. YAHUWAH hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our YAH. Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of YAHUWAH. For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for YAHUWAH will go before you; and AHYAH of Israel will be your rereward. Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high. As many were astonied at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men: So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

Now after that it said go to Joel 2:1 - 11 and it reads:

Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of YHWH cometh, for it is nigh at hand; A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations. A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them. The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness. They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded. They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief. The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining: And YHWH shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of YHWH is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

Now I was like wow could this be talking about us?

A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations. They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

I was like man who are these people? Is this us no! Then a voice said keep reading to the end so I went to the last verses of this chapter of JOEL 2 and it reads:

JoeL 2:32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the MOST HIGH shall be delivered for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the MOST HIGH hath said, and in the remnant whom the MOST HIGH shall call.

This Versese leads us back to Romans 10:13 right where I began. This Verses speaks about deliverance “the MOST HIGH shall be delivered for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance” this lead me back to Pedaiah (YAH'S RANDSOM). This verses speaks about REMNANT as the MOST HIGH hath said, and in the remnant whom the MOST HIGH shall call. This lead me back to Conaniah (YAH Sustained) the remanat he Sustained in Babylonian.

Now I had this happen to me before when I though about a topic and someone would mention it . Or I would think about something and it would happen, but never like this. Everything lined up perfectly. And I had no clue what I was doing.

So in closing I just want the Seed of Yacob to know no matter what they do to you, you are the apple of AHYAH's eye. No matter how they tried to hide the truth change the names scatter the sheep confuse with babel. We are the apple of the MOST HIGHS EYES and as for you gentiles listen to this:

JOHN Chapter 10:

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

Now for the Hebrews of Seed of Yacob THAT WERE SOLD ON THE SLAVE SHIPS LYNCH AND HAVE BEEN TOLD THAT YOU ARE NOTHING AND TREATED THE SAME HERE THIS:

ZECHERIAH Chapter 2 Verses 7 – 13:

Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. For thus saith YAHUWAH the YAH of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that YAHUWAH the YAH of hosts hath sent me. Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith YAHUWAH. And many nations shall be joined to the YAHUWAH in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that YAHUWAH of hosts hath sent me unto thee. And YAHUWAH shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again. Be silent, O all flesh, before YAHUWAH: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

Prayer to the Most High AHYAH

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.
